

Summer Reading 2018
for Students Entering Grades 5, 6, 7, & 8

Summer is a great time to read. It's fun and good for us!

Reading over the summer not only strengthens reading skills, it also builds background knowledge, exposes us to varied vocabulary, and connects us to new ideas.

*This summer all students entering grades 5, 6, 7, & 8 are expected to select and read one book from the fiction list or one book from the list of nonfiction topics on the reverse side of this sheet. Students and families are encouraged to carefully review the book and topic choices available.
There are many engaging options.*

Students can use the attached note taking sheet for taking notes on the book selected. Upon their return to school, students will participate in text based activities with their classmates.

Summer reading is also supported by the
